

EMERGING SCHOLAR AWARD NOMINATION CRITERIA

DESCRIPTION

The ASCILITE Emerging Scholar Award aims to recognize the outstanding contributions of emerging scholars who are engaging in the exemplary use of, and/or research into, technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education. The nature of these contributions will be in at least one of the following categories:

- Emerging professional mentoring that encourages and supports the exemplary use of technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education.
- Emerging professional leadership engaged in the development, application or implementation of exemplary technology-enhanced learning and teaching in tertiary education.
- Emerging innovative practice in the exemplary use of technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education.
- Emerging noteworthy research in the use of technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education leading to significant new knowledge and/or understandings.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Nominations for ASCILITE Emerging Scholar Awards are invited from ASCILITE members. Self-nominations are accepted but they must be seconded by an ASCILITE member. All applicants must be a current member of ASCILITE.

AWARD CRITERIA

Nominations for the ASCILITE Emerging Scholar Award will be assessed on merit by a sub-committee of the ASCILITE Executive. The following criteria will guide this assessment:

1. Has made a noteworthy contribution in the exemplary use of technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education in one of the above categories; and/or
2. Has made a noteworthy contribution to exemplary research into technologies for learning and teaching in tertiary education in one of the above categories; and
3. Through their contributions has promoted the strategic vision, mission and goals of ASCILITE.

ENTITLEMENT

The ASCILITE Emerging Scholar Award is a reflection of peer esteem from colleagues within the tertiary sector but has no financial benefit. The Award winner/s will be presented at the ASCILITE annual conference. There may be multiple Award recipients presented based on merit but ASCILITE recognizes that there does not have to be an award presented each year. All recipients will be informed in advance of the event and would be encouraged to attend the conference in person to receive their Award. Awardees are invited to conduct an ASCILITE webinar and write a blog post during the year following their award and to present at the next ASCILITE conference. If these activities are undertaken, the awardee is eligible for a complimentary conference registration.

APPLICATION DUE DATE

All nominations must be submitted on the application form by the due date indicated on the ASCILITE website: <http://ascilite.org/get-involved/awards/>
