- (j) If, within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present, then the doors shall be closed and all members present shall constitute a quorum for that meeting.

SECTION F: FINANCE & PROPERTY

19. FINANCE

- (a) All monies received shall be deposited into the Association's bank account at such bank as shall be determined from time-to-time by the Executive.
- (b) The Association may borrow money from such banks or financial institutions and in such amounts as shall be approved from time-to-time by the Executive but the Association must not allow its borrowings at a particular time to exceed, in total, an amount equal to the current market value of all of its assets.
- (c) The current market value of the property of the Association shall be the capital value determined by the Valuer-General of South Australia.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section the Executive may authorise the Treasurer or other such persons who may be approved by the Executive to retain such sum or sums by way of petty cash, or operating expenditures, as it shall deem appropriate and make expenditure therefrom subject to such conditions that the Executive may prescribe.
- (e) The financial year of the Association shall be from 1st July in any year to 30th June of the following year.

20. ACCOUNTS

- (a) The Executive must, as soon as practicable after the end of a financial year, ensure that financial statements are prepared in respect of that financial year.
- (b) If the Association is a Prescribed Association it will comply with all regulations required by the Authority.

21. FINANCIAL PROCESSES & MANAGEMENT

- (a) The Society will comply with the following financial provisions in the interests of transparency and sound management:
- (i) Online banking access privileges: The ASCILITE Executive Officers (President, Vice President and Treasurer) will be registered with the bank as "Authorising Users" and the Secretariat registered as a "General User" or the equivalent. Only Authorising Users will be able to approve and process payments.
  - (ii) Access to bank statements: ASCILITE Executive Officers will have ongoing access to inspect, but not debit or credit, the ASCILITE bank accounts through internet banking.
  - (iii) Invoice approvals: Copies of all invoices and expense claims will be provided to the Treasurer for approval and will only be processed once written approval has been provided. The Secretariat will retain copies of all invoices received by email and scan any invoice received by mail in order to send copies to the Treasurer for approval. The Treasurer will review invoices against the ASCILITE approved budget before approval is granted.
  - (iv) Regular Executive reporting: The Secretariat will conduct monthly reconciliations of cheque and credit card accounts and send these to the ASCILITE Treasurer, President and Vice President. Reconciliations of other accounts (such as term deposits) will be included as formal notification from the bank or financial institution permit. The Treasurer, in consultation with the Executive, will monitor the monthly reports in relation to ASCILITE's budget forecast approved by members at the Annual General Meeting each year.
  - (v) Payment authorisation: Authorisation of payments will only be performed by Authorising Users. The Secretariat will submit invoices to the Treasurer for approval and, once approved in writing, the Secretariat will then post payments online for processing/authorising by the Treasurer. In the absence of the Treasurer, the President will process payments. The Secretariat cannot independently process transactions.
  - (vi) Preparation of Financial Statement: An annual financial statement will be prepared by a chartered accountant to ensure that a final and complete view of the Society's finances is made available to the Executive and Members.

(vii) Property of the Society: Acquisition and disposal of Society property will be carried out by Authorising Users in accordance with advice from the Executive. The Society will manage and review property by monitoring reasonable lifetime and its value with standard depreciation calculations.

(b) Provision for audit of accounts: The Society will appoint an auditor to audit any year's accounts subsequent to a formal motion being carried at an Executive or Annual General Meeting.

22. INCOME AND PROPERTY OF THE ASSOCIATION

(a) The income and property of the Association, however derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by dividend, bonus or otherwise to any Member of the Association.

(b) Nothing in the above position of this section shall prevent the payment in good faith to a Member of the Association of:

(i) reasonable remuneration of a Member of the Association for work done by the Member for or on behalf of the Association;

(ii) any payments or dispositions that are incidental to activities carried on by the Association in accordance or consistently with its objects; or

(iii) reimbursement of any expenses incurred by the Association paid by a Member.

23. DISPOSAL OF REAL PROPERTY

(a) The Association will not dispose of any real property unless the disposal is approved by a special resolution.

SECTION G: MISCELLANEOUS

24. SEAL OF THE ASSOCIATION

- (a) The Association shall have a common seal upon which its corporate name shall appear in legible characters.
- (b) The seal shall not be used without the express authorisation of the Executive, and every use of the seal shall be recorded in the minute book of the Association. The affixing of the seal shall be witnessed by the President.

25. MANNER IN WHICH THE ASSOCIATION MAY BE WOUND UP

The manner in which the Association may be wound up is as follows:

- (a) Voluntarily:
  - (i) the Association passes a special resolution.
- (b) By the Supreme Court on the following grounds:
  - (i) that the Association has by special resolution passed that it be wound up by the Supreme Court.
  - (ii) that the Association is unable to pay its debts.
  - (iii) that the Supreme Court is satisfied that it would be in the best interests of Members or creditors of the Association if the Association were to be wound up.
  - (iv) that the Supreme Court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the Association be wound up.

26. DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON WINDING UP

If at the completion of a winding up of the Association there remain any surplus assets, such surplus assets will be used as directed by a Special General meeting.

27. AFFILIATION

The Executive may:

- (a) Make application for affiliation with such organisations and associations whose objects are consistent with those of the Association and as the Executive from time to time thinks fit.

- (b) Elect representative(s) to attend meetings of such organisations and associations aforesaid.
- (c) Invite representative(s) from such organisations and associations aforesaid to attend any meetings of the Executive or of the Association.

28. CIRCUMSTANCES NOT PROVIDED FOR

- (a) If any circumstances arise as to which these Rules are:

- (i) silent
- (ii) incapable of taking effect, or
- (iii) incapable of being implemented according to their strict provision the Executive will have the power to determine what action may be taken to best give effect to the objects of the Association and to ensure its efficient administration.

- (c) Every act of the Executive taken in good faith under this clause will be as valid and effectual as if specifically authorised by these Rules.

BY-LAWS

1. Appeals

- (i) Where a member, including a member of the Executive, is aggrieved by a decision of the Association, including a decision of the Executive, then that member has a right of appeal to an Appeals Committee.
- (ii) On receiving written notice of the dispute and intention to appeal, the President shall convene an appeals committee comprising a Chair and two other association members which may be members of the Executive.
- (iii) The Committee shall be established as soon as is reasonably possible after the dispute has been drawn to the attention of the Executive through receipt of the written notice.
- (iv) The Committee shall hear the dispute within 10 days of its establishment and will deliver its decision within 7 days of the completion of its hearing.
- (v) The decision of the committee shall be final.
- (vi) In exercising its powers of adjudication, the rules of natural justice will be observed.

2. The Annual Conference

- (a) Accompanying the notice of the Annual General Meeting the Secretariat shall cause to be distributed a call for Conference Proposal Committees to be formed for the Annual Conference two years hence. Any member or group of members of the Society may form a Conference Proposal Committee.
- (b) A Conference Proposal Committee will be recognised by the Society upon the receipt by the Secretariat of a statement to the following effect:
  - (i) stating that in the Conference Proposal Committee that is being formed, 50% of the committee members plus one additional member are members of the Society who must each sign the statement;
  - (ii) stating the name of the Proposed Conference Convener that the Conference Proposal Committee supports. The Proposed Conference Convener must be a member of the Proposed Conference Committee; and

- (iii) stating the city or town in which an Annual Conference organised by the Proposed Conference Convener would be held, and
  - (iv) providing evidence of the support of the university from a senior leadership position, if the proposal comes from a university-based committee, for the proposal.
- (d) The Executive shall have the responsibility of appointing a Conference Organizing Committee for each Annual Conference that shall also include the ASCILITE President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretariat as ex officio members.
- (e) Each Conference Organizing Committee shall be announced at the Annual General Meeting in the year before the Annual Conference for which it shall have responsibility. A Conference Organizing Committee need not be one of the Proposed Conference Committees although normally this shall be the case.
- (f) A Conference Organizing Committee shall include a Convener and additional members responsible for management of finance, proceedings editing and program coordination.
- (g) The Convener may co-opt additional members to the Conference Organizing Committee as necessary.
- (h) The Convenor shall make such regular reports on the progress of the conference including the budget as shall be required by the Executive.
- (i) The powers of a Conference Organizing Committee shall only relate to the Conference for which it has been appointed. Its powers and obligations shall be:
- i. to set a date for the Conference which shall be notified to the Executive at least twelve months prior to that date;
  - ii. to determine the Conference fee in conjunction with the Executive, which shall be sufficient to meet all projected expenses associated with the Conference. Except where specifically authorised by the Executive, the general funds of the Society shall not be available to meet Conference expenses;
  - iii. to provide the Executive with a draft Conference Budget;
  - iv. to arrange a venue and accommodation for participants in the location selected by the Executive;
  - v. to determine the Conference duration and program;

- vi. to solicit papers and obtain appropriate speakers;
- vii. to arrange Conference publicity;
- viii. to collect Conference fees and manage them to meet the properly incurred Conference expenses there from;
- ix. to collect membership fees on behalf of the Society, where these are paid at the time of registering for the conference. The contact details of new members shall be passed to the Secretariat within one week of receipt of fees. All membership fees shall be passed onto the Secretariat within 30 days of conclusion of the Conference;
- x. to provide monthly financial reporting to the Executive commencing at least six months prior to the Conference and to provide the Executive with a reconciled financial statement of all receipts and payments associated with the Conference together with the transfer to ASCILITE of the balance of all remaining funds within six months after the Conference;
- xi. to assemble material associated with the Conference which shall include the conference program, list of participants, a collection of conference papers, and reports. A copy of this material, in its entirety, shall be provided electronic format to the Secretariat for archiving purposes;
- xii. to publish the Conference proceedings in online/electronic format for distribution and access at the Annual Conference; and
- xiii. unless otherwise authorised by the Executive, the powers of the Conference committee shall cease on completion of its obligations contained in clause 2(i) of the By-Laws.
- xiv. The Conference Committee can request the Executive for an advance of funds to assist with the costs of setting up the conference, to an amount to be agreed in consultation with the Executive.
- xv. Where there is a disagreement concerning the conference between the Conference Convenor and the Executive, then the executive decision shall prevail and there will be no appeal from that decision.

3. AWARDS

- (a) The Society may provide awards for exemplary use of electronic technologies in teaching and learning in tertiary education. An awards committee shall:
  - (i) be appointed to manage the process of the Annual ASCILITE Awards;
  - (ii) prepare an online record of nominees and winners; and

- (iii) provide a copy of all documentation in electronic formats to the Secretariat for archiving purposes.

4. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES - ELECTION PROCESS FOR EXECUTIVE

- (a) Elections shall be by ballot and the results shall be announced at the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) The candidates to be elected to the Executive at any election shall be the candidates receiving the largest number of votes.
- (c) Only financial members may vote.
- (d) Prior to the election, the Secretariat (as the Returning Officer) shall send to all members of the Society:
  - (i) a list of the current Executive Officers and Executive Members retiring but eligible and offering for re-election;
  - (ii) a call for nominations; and
  - (iii) the date by which nominations must be received by the Returning Officer. If, after the close of nominations, the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies for any position, the Returning Officer shall send out to all financial members, a link to the voting form with statements from each candidate. Voting will close 15 working days after the election opens.
- (e) In the event that the number of nominations is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, all Nominees for the positions shall be appointed and any further vacancies shall be filled by co-option.
- (f) In the event that the number of nominations is more than the number of vacancies to be filled, then all financial members shall be entitled to vote for the positions and the candidates with the greatest number of votes shall be appointed to the positions.
- (g) Nominations must be made in writing to the Returning Officer by the due date. All nominations must have a separate Proposer and Secunder and be agreed to by the Nominee in writing. The Proposer, Secunder and Nominee must all be financial members of the Society.
- (h) The President shall appoint a Tellers Committee comprising the Returning Officer plus up to two members to determine the outcome.

- (i) In the event of tied votes for the final vacancy for any position the person elected shall be determined by lot by the Returning Officer.
- (j) In the event of elections of Executive Members under Clause 4 becoming unevenly spread across odd and even years, then those Executive Members gaining the greatest number of votes shall be elected for a term of two years and the other members shall be elected for a term of one year.
