Future of Graduate Women: The gendered impacts of COVID-19 on women, education, work and gender-based violence

29th April 2021 (Thursday)
7pm (New Zealand time)

Zoom Link
Zoom ID: 342 959 4848

Contact person: Dr Kwong Nui Sim (kwongnui.sim@aut.ac.nz)
Convenor of Graduate Women Independent Members

Professor Jaya Dantas is Dean International in the Faculty of Health Sciences and Professor in the Curtin School of Population Health at Curtin University and has worked for 34 years in India, Kenya, Uganda, Rwanda, Timor Leste and Australia. Professor Dantas, won an Australian National Award for University Teaching in 2010, and is a Fellow of the Public Health Association of Australia (PHAA). She is currently President of Australian Graduate Women, and has been a delegate to the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) at the United Nations. Professor Dantas assists the Pro-Vice Chancellor in leading the Faculty of Health Sciences global positioning portfolio in expanding the One Curtin strategy, global demand for health courses, and growing international collaborations. She leads a research program in refugee and migrant health with a focus on the social determinants of health, mental health and health equity. Her work is with communities and draws on multidisciplinary approaches to inform health and social policy. In her presentation, she will share the impacts of COVID-19 on women globally with implications for women, education, work and gender based violence.